

2026 Spring Training TV & Radio Broadcast Schedule Announced

Cardinals.TV to Stream 16 Games for Free with 8 Local Simulcasts on Matrix Midwest; KMOX to Broadcast 18 Contests; Cardinals Spanish Radio to Call First Two Games

February 12th, 2026

ST. LOUIS, Mo., February 12, 2026 – The St. Louis Cardinals have announced that fans will be able to catch 29 of the club’s 30 spring contests on either Cardinals.TV, Matrix Midwest, KMOX 104.1 FM & 1120 AM/Cardinals Radio Network affiliates or MLB digital platforms. The Cardinals Spring Training schedule will consist of 28 Grapefruit League games and two exhibition matchups against Team Nicaragua at Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium and the club’s Double-A affiliate Springfield Cardinals at Hammons Field.

Television & Streaming

Cardinals.TV & MLB.TV will stream 16 Spring Training contests in 2026 with live game coverage beginning on Monday, February 23, when the Cardinals host the Miami Marlins at Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium at noon CT. All 16 Spring Training games on Cardinals.TV/MLB.TV will be free to stream for fans with a valid MLB.com account. Games can also be streamed on the MLB app and via cardinals.com.

Additionally, eight of the Cardinals.TV Spring telecasts will be simulcast locally on free, over-the-air Matrix Midwest (over-the-air on channel 32 and channel 6 on Spectrum/Charter).

Chip Caray will handle play-by-play duties with Brad Thompson and Stefan Caray serving as analysts, while the team's new host/reporter and St. Louis native, Dani Wexelman, will make her debut for two Spring matchups. Wexelman will share reporter duties in the regular season with Jim Hayes, who returns on Opening Day and all Cardinals home games in his 25th season covering Cardinals baseball.

PHOENIX -- Jacob Misorowski is already throwing heat as he ramps up for his first full season in the Majors and Cooper Pratt is one of the Brewers' best prospects. No, the latter did not risk his life so the former could show off his fastball.

But the Brewers' video production team made you think twice, didn't they?

- Brewers single-game tickets for 2026 season are on sale now!

A couple of days after their Sal Frelick video game parody went viral, the Brewers were back with another installment of what they call their “arthouse baseball” series on Tuesday, featuring Misorowski knocking an apple off the head of a seated Pratt with a well-placed pitch. Considering Misorowski topped out at 104.3 mph in his rookie season (and that his command remains a work in progress), it looked like a death-defying stunt.

It's a stunt that even William Tell would be proud of. And for fans too young to know
